ACT65. Poison
加油
大魔王!

You things are wanderers!!
This way, quickly hide!
Salaman your hand..... is it okay?
Should be fine?

This type of "wanderers" would peek into the human's inner heart and disguise with shadow mimicry.
Because our thoughts of finding Comocky and Iku was very strong, therefore it turned into that kind of appearance.
But the abandoned den should require at least over a few years before it gets occupied by the "wanderers".
It's only been a few months, since the academy's last cleansing, how come such a horrifying wandered appeared.....

Then we must leave here.
I'll go out and distract them, you guys find a chance to leave first------
Let me do it, classmate Aisela. This is my responsibility as class president.
Wait a second, class pres.....
HEY!
I'm right here!

Come here!
Come catch me!
Class pres is actually risking his life, to distract the wanderers.

Before I didn't think much of him, but now i'm having a bit of a change of mind.....
What?
Christina, where you going?!
She just went off like this!
Towards that direction..... She went to look for class pres?

Hopefully they..... can safely meet up
.....Hey!
Salaman!
Your hand keeps on bleeding!
The wound already became like this,
do you not feel anything at all?!

Let me see!
Damn! Could this be poison.....
Poisoned? Then what should we do? Aisela, quickly think of a way------
Be quiet, I'm thinking!
Aiya.....
You guys love me so much.

Who loves you! You didn't even know that you were bleeding the whole time!
Salaman you slow dummy! Can't you care about yourself a bit more?!

.....Salaman?

Wa! He fainted —— 咚!
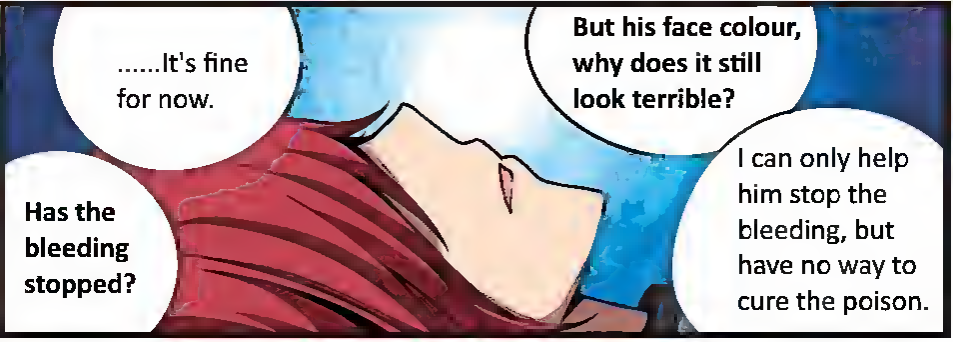
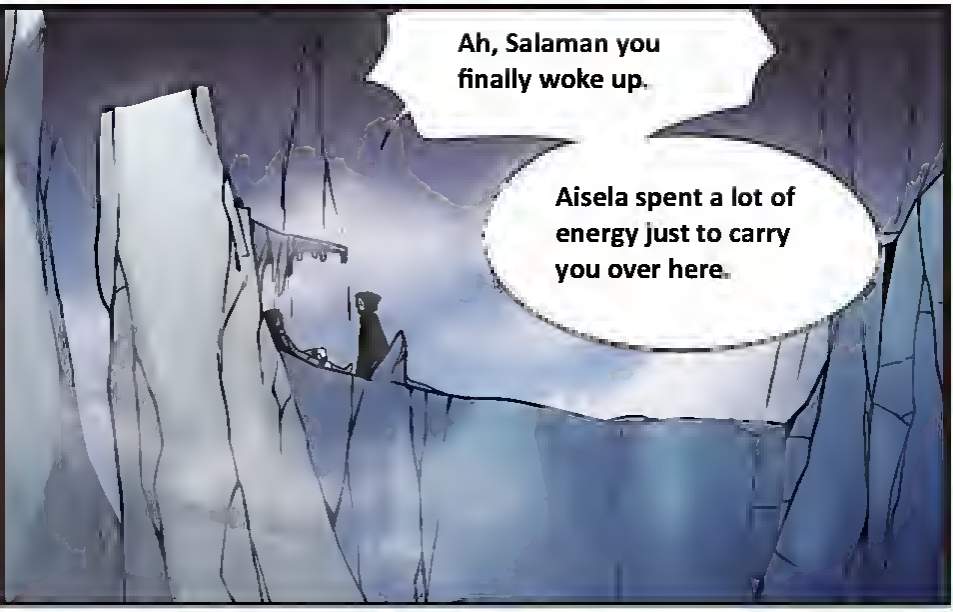
It must be related to the huge amount of blood loss!



.....It's fine for now.
But his face colour, why does it still look terrible?
Has the bleeding stopped?
I can only help him stop the bleeding, but have no way to cure the poison.



Ah, Salaman you finally woke up.
Aisela spent a lot of energy just to carry you over here.

.....What happened to me?

You got poisoned.

Sorry.....
It's all because of my carelesness. Wanderers are the unifying of dark resentment, carrying on them extremely dangerous poison.
For the sake of protecting me, you got directly cut by the blade carrying the poison.....
Sorry.
I.....
I.....
Aisela.
I'm hungry.
Seriously, this guy who only knows to eat and sleep everyday.

This area is very hidden..... You guys first wait inside the barrier, and you must not come out.
Simply by being inside, you will be able to hide your presence.
I need to go back to the academy once, to retrieve a potion that can cure the poison.
Just sleep for a while, Salaman.
I definitely won't let anything happen to you.
Okay.
